1. What cookies are

Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit a website. They help the site function properly and provide information about how it is used.

2. How we use cookies

We use cookies to:

- ensure the website functions as intended
- understand how visitors interact with the site (analytics)
- improve performance and overall user experience

Where required, non-essential cookies (such as analytics) are only used with your consent.

3. Types of cookies we may use

- Essential cookies — required for the website to function properly
- Analytics cookies — help us understand how visitors use the site so we can improve it

4. Managing cookies

You can control or disable cookies through your browser settings. Please note that disabling certain cookies may affect how the website functions.

5. Updates

We may update this Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes in how we use cookies or for legal reasons.

6. Contact

If you have any questions about this policy, please contact: emilybbranding@gmail.com

7. Legal

This policy is governed by the laws of England and Wales.
